

One ball fractured his arm. One ball in the breast caused David to lose part of one rib.

David Kerr's sister was a Mrs. Robertson of Pendleton District SC in 1833.

South Carolina pension certificate 30430 was issued 24Feb1836 to David Kerr of Church Hill in Abbeville District @ $80.00/annum with $400.00 arrears. The federal archives hold notes indicating several suspensions and delays in the original application of 1832. The South Carolina auditor's office certified that Kerr was paid £98.8.7 to settle accounts for his service. He was not allowed a charge for a rifle of £6.8.6. In other notes Kerr was earlier paid at the rate of 20 shillings per day on horse. He was paid 45 pounds to replace a rifle.

During a supplemental declaration, Kerr recounted additional details. From Thicketty Fort, Captain McCall's rangers went to Roan (Rowan) County NC where Kerr was detached to Captain Samuel Kerr under whom he joined Col Shelby and went to Kings Mountain. He was carried from Kings Mountain to Rowan County where he recovered from his wounds until the first of May 1781.
