

Joseph Reed is not among the casualties named on the 1909 obelisk plaque honoring the killed and wounded.

<http://revwarapps.org/w1484.pdf>

Served under Colonel Benjamin Cleveland, Captain Joel Lewis

In Sep1828 appeal in Knoxville to raise his pension to full disability, Reed stated that he now requires two crutches to walk. Doctors stated that the gunshot in the left femur causes 3 or 4 inch shorter leg which sets the spine at an uncomfortable angle which grows steadily more discomforting while in the line of duty.