Isaac Connor stated in a pension application (FPA s1045) on 25Dec1832 in Pendleton County KY at age 75

That he entered the Service as a Substitute for George Purvis in the year 1778 in the month of July as well as he now recollects for a tour of six months in the militia of North Carolina in the County of Rutherford under Captain ____ Burney, the Major was William Bailey, Colonel Elijah Clarke commanded the Regiment, during this tour he was in no battles, he was in a skirmish at Hogg's Mills, he thinks in Union County South Carolina, he served in this tour some days upwards of six months. He next volunteered in the year of 1779 for six months under Captain Samuel Miller in said County of Rutherford, Major Joseph McDowell commanded, until we were consolidated at the battle of King's Mountain. Colonel Campbell then commanded, – but from the great lapse of time & the number of different officers he was under he may have been mistaken & he may have been under Captain Burney at King's Mountain instead of Captain Miller as he served a second tour of six months under Captain Burney. In the year 1781 he volunteered a fresh tour of duty under Captain Samuel Miller for six months, Major Joseph McDowell commanded until we marched to the Cowpens in South Carolina. Colonel Pickens then took the command of the Regiment – he was wounded in the right side at the Battle of the Cowpens. In the spring of 1782 he volunteered for eight months under Captain John Clark.

He was born in Winchester, Frederick County VA in 1757. His family moved to Rutherford County NC where he was apprenticed to George Purvis.
