

John Martin was severely wounded in the Battle at the Cowpens on 17Jan1781. He was serving far from home, probably with Colonel John Eager Howard's regiment. Taken to Mecklenburg County NC for treatment, when he recovered, he was destitute and unable to go home. He appealed to South Carolina for aid. They appropriated £12 to help him get clothes and replace the horse killed in the battle.